

HEAD COACH

KEITH BUGBEE is in his 23rd season as head men's lacrosse coach and assistant professor of physical education at Springfield College. Under his direction, the Pride is one of the top programs in the nation. Bugbee's coaching record stands at an impressive 235-105 (.691 winning percentage). In 2003, he became one of only four active coaches in Division III with over 200 victories.

Bugbee's teams have competed in 20 post-season tournaments, including ten NCAA Tournaments, and won a national championship. Thirty-nine of his players have received All-America recognition, including Bob Felt, who was voted the 1994 U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) Division II Player of the Year.

Bugbee was named the USILA Division II Coach of the Year in 1994 and 1995. He coached the North team in the annual North-South All-Star Game in 1995 and was the coach for the West squad in the annual New England All-Star Game in 1986. Bugbee has served as president of the New England Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association and was inducted into the New England Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 2002.

Last season, SC captured its fifth straight Pilgrim Lacrosse League title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the last six seasons. The Pride finished the regular season ranked 12th in the nation and rolled to a second consecutive 8-0 mark against league competition, adding a pair of wins in the conference tournament. Making the program's eighth appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament, SC fell to ninth-ranked Wesleyan. Senior attack Taylor Brown was named an honorable mention All-American for the third year in a row.

Bids to the NCAA Tournament are hard to come by, but they are the norm at SC. In 2003, Bugbee was named the Pilgrim League Coach of the Year after leading the Pride to an 11-5 record and the NCAAs. SC fell at eventual national runner-up Middlebury College, 11-9, in a second-round game.

A year ago, Springfield started very slowly before rolling to ten straight regular season wins, two additional victories in the Pilgrim League tournament and yet another spot in the NCAA Division III tournament.

In 2001, Bugbee led SC to a school-record 16-2 mark and a No. 5 final national ranking. The Pride defeated Eastern Connecticut State, 11-9, in a first-round NCAA Tournament game played on Benedum Field, before falling at No. 1-ranked Gettysburg (Pa.), 16-12. Springfield led the nation in scoring (17.78 gpg) and scoring margin (+11.67 gpg) while winning its second consecutive Pilgrim League Championship. SC, which was ranked as high as No. 3 nationally, had six players named All-American, including former Boston Cannons goalie Jeremy Platt.

In 2000, the Pride finished the season ranked No. 20 after falling in overtime at RIT, 13-12, in the first round of the NCAA Division III Tournament. SC was ranked No. 12 in 1999 after compiling a 12-5 record. SC finished 12-4 in 1998 and captured its second ECAC Division III Championship. The Pride also won ECAC Championships in 1989, 1993 and 2002.

In 1994, Springfield captured the NCAA Division II National Championship with a 15-12 victory over New York Institute of Technology to finish with a 12-2 record. The following year, Springfield compiled a 13-1 mark with its only loss coming against Adelphi, 12-10, in the NCAA Division II Championship title game.

Bugbee is a 1979 graduate of Keene State (N.H.) College where he lettered in lacrosse and soccer while earning his bachelor's degree in physical education. He received his master's degree in physical education from Springfield College.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jeremy Platt is a 2001 Springfield College graduate who was a second team All-American goalie. Charlie Lonergan graduated from Hobart in 2000 where he played attack and midfield.

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

With a lacrosse tradition dating back to 1928, Springfield College has one of the most successful programs in the nation. Under the direction of coach Keith Bugbee, SC has an impressive 235-105 record since 1984, including a 147-60 mark in ten seasons since moving to Division III.

SC captured the 1994 NCAA Division II Championship with a 15-12 victory over New York Institute of Technology. The following year, SC fell to Adelphi, 12-10, in its second-straight appearance in the D-II final. The Pride also competed in NCAA Tournaments in 1982, 1985, 1990, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2005.

SC played in ten ECAC Division III Tournaments (1984-1991, 1998, 2002), winning the 1989, 1998 and 2002 crowns. In 1993, Springfield captured its first ECAC Division II Championship.

SC plays its home games at Benedum Field, which features an Astroturf surface and lights for night contests. Springfield competes in the Pilgrim League where the champion receives an automatic invitation to the NCAA Division III Tournament.
